

Interns, trainees and apprentices

SOLUTIONS

- 1
 - 1 graduated from
 - 2 unpaid
 - 3 hands-on experience
 - 4 menial
 - 5 range of tasks
 - 6 professional skills
 - 7 build our confidence

- 2
 - 1 traineeships, trainees
 - 2 entry-level jobs
 - 3 part-time study
 - 4 apprenticeships, apprentices
 - 5 vocational qualification
 - 6 job-specific skills

Over to you (sample answer)

I have just graduated with a law degree and I found a law firm that specializes in commercial law. The internship that they offer sound very interesting. They allow interns to work with more senior lawyers on the writing of contracts. It all sounds good – no menial tasks. What's more, the internship is paid – about €500 a month.